THIS IS THE WORLD THAT WE LIVE IN.

IF, BY CHANCE, HEROES NEVER EXISTED,

IF THEY WERE JUST FICTIONAL BEINGS THAT ONLY EXISTED IN MANHWA OR MOVIES,

The burning building eventually collapsed, trapping the firefighters.

However, the national hero Justice Man, was dispatched in order to save them.

I was able to arrive quickly thanks to the local reports.

The on-site guarding was heavy and hot, but I immediately got to work after hearing that firefighters were trapped in there.

Unfortunately, I was unable to save them.

Not even the receipt opinion about the having heroes has turned to praise and compliment.

I heard that you were going to formally register yourself in the World Hero Association, is this true?

Sunrise?? Did you pull another late night??

Ah?

Yeah.

PERHAPS, WE COULD...

Yes, I've already submitted my application. Apparently, it's being evaluated at the moment.

That's incredible!
Looks like it won't be long before Korea joins the list of nations that own an official hero

BE JUST, A LITTLE BIT MORE...

Yes, thank you very much for the report. Once he's been accepted into the World Hero Association, Korea will become the most powerful country

Because of this, the government has started to release their promotional videos. Let's take a look.

...That's the one we made not too long ago, isn't it?

They're really going to use that nuclear trash of a video?!

Yes... Yes...

Haha... Definitely not. As intelligence agency thinks human rights are nothing more than ~~rules~~ should just fail to rule.

GO EUN-AH!!
YOU RAN AWAY
AGAIN. DIDNT YOU?!

I KNOW
YOU'RE HERE!

It's so good to eat at home for once-

Do you want to see something interesting?

Sometimes
I wonder...

If the bastardly
existence of heroes never came to be,
would we be happy?

PERHAPS WE COULD BE A LITTLE HAPPIER.
